

Every Body's In: A Call for Responsibility and Action for Educating and Developing Our Youth

PERSONAL COMMITMENT FORM

To Recognize... Inspire... Explore... Engage

EVERY BODY HAS A PLACE IN THE LIFE OF A CHILD!

Reflections

How are we all responsible for developing and educating our youth?

How do we envision our community as a resource?

What is the relationship among democracy, education, and citizens of our community?

How do we build bridges between citizens, communities, and schools?

What happens when you are not involved?

QUESTIONS FOR EXPLORATION AND ACTION!

Question 1

How am I responsible for educating and developing youth (personally and/or professionally) and what am I currently doing?

Question 2

In my role in the community, what can I do to acknowledge and validate the talents, gifts and brilliance of youth and what difference would this make?

Question 3

What can I do to expand my relationships and/or partnerships with other community educators?

Question 4

With whom do I need to work and insure that all youth are successful?

YES, I'M IN!
